

Why choose DOS:-

- Technical Expertise & Training Our qualified, experienced engineering team will sell you your equipment, instruct your staff on the use of the equipment and then maintain it for you.
- Environmentally Aware We are committed to reducing our carbon foot print.
- Nice People We are a service driven organisation, you benefit from true service & support based infrastructure.
- Price good all round value.
- Sales Staff We do not employ the traditional commission only based sales staff, instead all our sales are handled by our technical team, they may call to maintain the machine as well as sell it.
- Product Knowledge read our case studies on line.
- Delivery We keep our promises.
- One stop solution provider We can supply, deliver, install and provide training, support, and maintenance on everything you need.
- We'll be there Time after time, when we ask customers why they prefer to buy from DOS, they say "Because we like the people. They know their stuff; they're helpful and they try hard!"
